Revolution). After the one-day test run, TETS was deactivated and was not in operation in December 1954 [redacted] 25X1

Construction of the admin buildings of Atom Blok began in 1953 and was completed in 1955, and some of the buildings were furnished. Construction of Atom Blok itself began in the summer of 1954 [redacted] 25X1 in the area planned for the Atom Blok only various construction materials were assembled. No structures of any kind had yet been erected [redacted] 25X1 [redacted] the target date by which Atom Blok is supposed to be finished [redacted] is 1959 or 1960.

The relationship of the three construction projects is: TETS is supposed to supply Atom Blok with energy when it is finished, and the admin buildings are to provide office space for both TETS and Atom Blok.
